All Together Seattle promotes community discussion on the issues of poverty through book clubs, movie screenings, social media, and public forums.

Get Involved!

1. Choose a book from our list below.

2. Read a book and then connect with your book club, neighbors, friends, school, or faith community to share what you learned.

3. Sign up for the All Together Seattle group on Facebook. Share with your friends: #AllTogetherSeattle

4. Plan to attend one of our movie screenings. At Quest Church.
   Doors Open at 6:00 pm & Movie Starts at 6:30 pm

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>A Place at the Table</th>
<th>American Winter</th>
<th>The Starfish Throwers</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>March 15th</td>
<td>April 5th</td>
<td>April 26th</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Books for Adults
- The Glass Castle by Jeanette Wall
- $2 A Day by Kathryn Edin & Luke Shaefer
- Nickle and Dimed by Barbara Ehrenreich
- The Stop by Nick Saul & Andrea Curtis
- Souls in the Hands of a Tender God by Craig Rennebohm
- Stuffed and Starved by Raj Patel

Books for 4th Grade & Up
- Also Known as Harper by Ann Hagmod Leal
- How to Steal a Dog by Barbara O’Conner
- Fly Away Home by Eve Bunting
- The Family Under the Bridge by Natalie Salvage Carlson
- Homecoming (Tillerman Series) by Cynthia Voigt

Why Now?

We know poverty in Seattle is on the rise and it affects each of us if we call Seattle our home. All Together Seattle focuses on building an understanding of the realities of poverty in our community through a compassionate lens.

The first step toward positive change is understanding the need for such change.

---

Borrow or Shop Local - Seattle Public Library - Secret Garden - Phinney Books - Magnolia’s Book Store - Queen Anne Book Company

Ballard Branch
The Seattle Public Library